

LET'S TALK CREATION

EPISODE 50: Let's Talk about the International Conference on Creationism

Since 1986, the International Conference on Creationism (ICC) has been a place for creationists to meet together and present their latest work. This episode celebrates the 37th year of ICC. Though it only meets every 5 years, past conferences have seen some of the most important creation research ever presented. Paul and Todd and special guests Dr. Bob Walsh, Dr. John Whitmore and Dr. Steve Gollmer share favorite papers and how they influenced their work. They also discuss what they are looking forward to seeing this year.
